Terms and conditions

1. The Motion Picture Licensing Company, International, Limited ("MPLC") grants licensee ("LICENSEE") a non-exclusive licence ("Licence") to publicly perform copyrighted motion pictures and other licensed programs from any legally obtained source intended for personal, private, home use only - such as home videocassettes and DVDs ("Videos"), in its premises, under the terms and conditions specified herein.
2. MPLC warrants and represents that it has secured the appropriate rights, under the Copyright and Related Rights Act 2000 to grant this Licence.
3. "Term" shall mean the period beginning on the "Start Date" listed on the application and continuing thereafter for periods of one (1) year each, unless cancelled by either party at the end of said period or any subsequent period, upon sixty (60) days advance written notice. Each one (1) year period during the Term is referred to herein as a "contract year." If LICENSEE does not timely notify MPLC of intent to terminate (more than 60 days prior to the start of the contract year which is to be terminated) this Licence will remain in effect for the entire contract year, and LICENSEE will be responsible for the entire annual fee due to MPLC hereunder. No refunds or credits will be made by MPLC in the event of early termination by LICENSEE.
4. The public performances authorized by this Licence shall take place at the premise address specified on the application or as LICENSEE otherwise notifies. The audience will be limited to LICENSEE's premises and the sole purpose of such performances is to entertain and/or educate the employees, patrons, members and/or guests of LICENSEE and the audience will be limited accordingly. No specific titles, or any characters from such titles, or producers' names will be advertised or publicized to the general public, and no admission or other fee will be charged to the audience.
5. The agreed licence fee for the first contract year of this agreement is specified on the application, which amount is payable to MPLC. Subsequent contract years may include adjustments based on various factors, including, but not limited to adjustments which: (i) reflect any change from the previous year's Retail Price Index (RPI), and/or (ii) reflect an increase in the number of attendees at performances conducted pursuant to this Licence. On an annual basis, or upon request by MPLC, LICENSEE shall furnish MPLC with the information MPLC may require to determine the licence fee for subsequent contract years. The licence fee for each subsequent contract year shall be due and payable no later than each anniversary date during the term of this Licence.
6. The specific titles which may be publicly performed by LICENSEE under this Licence are motion pictures produced and/or distributed by MPLC-affiliated motion picture producers and distributors ("Licensors"). MPLC represents that it or its motion picture company licensors may not possess the appropriate rights to certain individual titles, or, due to the expiration of those rights during the term of this Licence, MPLC may send LICENSEE at any time during the term of this Licence binding notices that certain titles cannot be or may no longer be publicly performed under this Licence. Such notices shall be binding and effective upon LICENSEE when received.
7. LICENSEE may publicly perform the specific titles covered by this Licence by means of lawfully manufactured pre-recorded Videos of those titles, acquired by LICENSEE from any legitimate source. The responsibility for obtaining Videos is that of LICENSEE, and that the costs of acquiring such Videos are to be borne solely by LICENSEE and are separate and distinct from the agreed public performance licence fee.
8. LICENSEE may not duplicate, edit or otherwise modify the Videos obtained for public performance purposes under this Licence.
9. Any separate fees which may be due to music publishers, or collection societies for music publishers, for the right to publicly perform the music contained in any of the motion pictures covered by this Licence are solely LICENSEE's responsibility and are not the responsibility of MPLC.
10. This Licence may not be assigned by LICENSEE, without the prior written consent of MPLC, except that LICENSEE shall have the right to assign this Licence in connection with a merger, consolidation or sale of its assets and business provided that LICENSEE guarantees payment of licence fees if the assignee does not pay in a timely manner for fees owed. This Licence may be assigned by MPLC.
11. In the event that a determination is made by a taxing authority or court that the activity licensed herein renders MPLC liable for the payment of a tax which is based on the amount of MPLC's receipts from LICENSEE, then LICENSEE shall reimburse and indemnify MPLC within thirty (30) days of notification therefore for LICENSEE's pro rata share of any such tax derived from receipts received from LICENSEE.
12. Any notice provided for herein shall be given in person; by first class post prepaid; by reputable overnight carrier; or by facsimile; addressed to the party to be notified at the address or facsimile number listed on the application. The date of personal service or mailing or facsimile of any such notice shall constitute the date of service.
13. MPLC reserves the right, exercisable upon thirty (30) days written notice, to terminate this Licence on account of any breach by LICENSEE of its terms and conditions. In the event of such termination, there shall be no refund of the licence fee. A waiver by MPLC or by LICENSEE of any specific breach by the other shall not constitute a waiver of any prior, continuing or subsequent breach of the same, or any other provision of this Licence. If any part of this Licence shall be determined unenforceable, the remainder of this Licence shall remain in full force and effect.
14. In the event MPLC engages an attorney to enforce its rights under this Licence by virtue of the breach on the part of LICENSEE, of any term of this Licence, LICENSEE agrees to pay the reasonable costs and reasonable attorney fees incurred by MPLC.
15. LICENSEE acknowledges by payment of the licence fee, that the information provided by LICENSEE is true, correct and complete in all respects. This Licence has been duly authorized and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation upon LICENSEE and is enforceable by its terms and conditions.
16. Any and all rights not granted to LICENSEE in this Licence are expressly reserved to MPLC and/or its motion picture licensors.
17. The application and these terms and conditions contain the full and complete agreement between MPLC and LICENSEE and shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Ireland and the parties submit to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of the Republic as regards to any claim or matter arising in relation to this Licence.

MPLC[®]
Motion Picture Licensing Company

Showing movies is illegal without a licence

The MPLC Umbrella Licence[®] is the solution for film copyright compliance.

» Why do you need a Licence?

Pre-recorded films, whether rented or purchased are intended for home use only, as per the Copyright and Related Rights Act 2000.

Enjoying movies outside of the cinema is now commonplace. Technology is also constantly evolving and we can all enjoy easier access to the internet and the use of high specification equipment. However, this places many businesses, social activity groups and other organisations who show films, at risk of Copyright infringement.

The release of DVDs so soon after the cinema launch allows premium entertainment films to be available to a variety of non-home situations.

Showing films in the workplace, or on a coach, or anywhere outside of a domestic, home environment are all considered 'public performances'.

Irrespective of the legally available format - either a rented or purchased DVD from a high street store or internet download - copyright law protects these 'public' film performances' from copyright abuse.

» The Simple Solution

Permission to show movies is readily available via The MPLC Umbrella Licence® solution.

The MPLC is the leader in non-theatrical copyright compliance, supporting legal access across five continents and over twenty countries. We represent over 300 producers and distributors worldwide, from major Hollywood studios to independent producers.

The licence allows unlimited use of films and there is no reporting of the titles you show. Just simple and affordable peace of mind.

Licence terms generally run for one year and renew automatically, or they can be limited to a single event. It covers any legally obtained video/DVD or download format.

The MPLC Umbrella Licence®

Copyright compliance for the public performance of films

INFACT

» Did you know?

Who is responsible for the licence? The location requires a licence regardless of who owns the DVD.

Are charities exempt? A licence is required even if you are a charitable group.

Can I charge admission? No, this is a non commercial licence. You cannot charge admission nor advertise titles to the general public.

I am a school. Do I need a special licence for non-curriculum showings? Yes, the MPLC license all nursery schools, out of school, holiday and activity clubs. (An educational exemption exists, but it is very narrowly defined and applies to curriculum uses only).

What are the penalties? Under the Copyright and Related Rights Act 2000, infringement penalties could result in penalties of up to €127,0000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or both.

Who will prosecute? The Irish National Federation Against Copyright Theft Organisation, INFACT. They work with the Police, Trading Standards and Customs and Excise departments to investigate and prosecute illegal showings on behalf of the film industry.
